

2024

Annual Report

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

2024 marked a significant year of transition for me personally, and for TTCU. In October of 2024, I was deeply honored to become the eighth President and CEO of this amazing institution.

It is a privilege to carry forward the legacy of leadership and service established by my predecessors—all of whom were internal, homegrown promotions. This continuity speaks volumes about TTCU's enduring commitment to service and excellence. I am grateful to continue the tradition of helping members and giving back to the communities we serve.

As we celebrate 90 years of enriching lives through financial leadership, I am excited about the opportunities ahead as we look toward our 100th anniversary. Growth remains a cornerstone of our vision—not merely for expansion, but to deliver even greater value to our members and the communities we proudly serve. Giving back is not just our mission; it is our measure of success.

To our 150,000+ members, thank you for placing your trust in us. You are the reason we exist and the driving force behind everything we do. Together, we will continue building on TTCU's legacy of trust, service and impact.

Shelby Beil

Shelby Beil,
TTCU President and CEO

Only the eighth president in TTCU's 90-year history, Shelby was appointed CEO in 2024. He had previously served as the Executive Vice President/Chief Financial Officer for TTCU for 17 years. His career in the credit union industry began in 2002, when he worked as a controller for Oklahoma Central Credit Union.

A Sapulpa native, Shelby graduated from Sapulpa High School in 1988. His mother, Collette, remains an active community volunteer in Sapulpa. Shelby earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Oklahoma State University in 1993, followed by an MBA from the University of Texas at Austin in 2002.

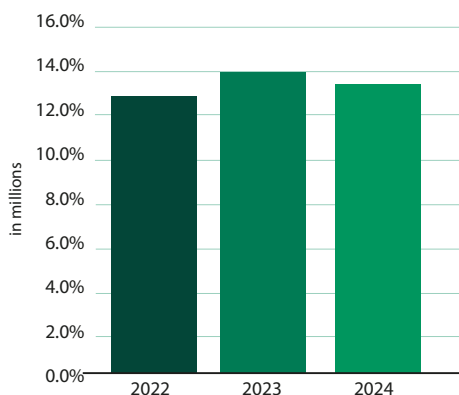

Community involvement is a core value for Shelby. He served on the JDRF Oklahoma board from 2007 to 2021, including two tenures as chapter president and was honored with the Star of Hope award in 2019. From 2021 to 2024, he served on the Board of Trustees for the Tulsa Public Facilities Authority. He has been on the Signature Symphony at TCC Advisory Board since 2019, where he also chaired the board, and currently serves on the board of the Philbrook Museum. In January, he joined the Tulsa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Shelby is a proud father of a daughter who graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 2019 and is pursuing a degree in art history at the University of Tulsa. His personal interests include fitness, reading, writing, Oklahoma State University and supporting Tottenham Hotspur.

HONORING JACK PONTIOUS

Jack began his service to what was then Tulsa Teachers Credit Union in 1987, serving on the Supervisory and Credit Committees. In 1996, he joined TTCU’s Board of Directors and served as Chairperson for four years.

In all, Jack spent 35 years with Tulsa Public School, serving as a teacher, counselor, principal and Director of Employee Benefits. He shared his important education perspective in his governance role with TTCU.

Throughout Jack’s 34-year tenure as a TTCU volunteer, Jack worked tirelessly to promote credit unions, and TTCU specifically. He was a constant cheerleader to the staff and a steadfast advocate for our members.

In 2021, in honor of Jack’s dedicated service to TTCU, the boardroom at the TTCU Corporate Office was named the The Jack Pontius Boardroom.

He will be missed dearly by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

In 1934, a group of local educators came together to support each other with much needed loans and financial assistance. Linnie B. Wilson, TTCU's first president, kept those initial deposits in a cigar box, in her classroom desk drawer. Members of the credit union could do transactions during her planning period. This was the humble beginning of Tulsa Teachers Credit Union.

90 years later, TTCU Federal Credit Union has grown into a $2.6 billion institution with 21 branches across Oklahoma, serving more than 150,000 members. Leading the way in innovative solutions and continuing to be member-focused, TTCU is embarking on a bright future. Here's to the next 90 years.

OUR COMMUNITY

Each year, TTCU staff fan out across Oklahoma, welcoming educators and support staff back to the classroom. In 2024, we participated in 90 such events.

For nearly four decades, TTCU has been a supporter of the Tulsa Area United Way, through fundraising and community service. TTCU employees participate in the annual Day of Caring, working with CAP.

Everyone loves a parade! TTCU staff walked, rode floats and passed out candy across all of NE Oklahoma, showing love and support to the communities we call home.
