A $24 fee is imposed for overdrafts resulting in a negative balance created by checks, ATM withdrawals, or by other electronic means. Negative balance must be repaid within 30 days. Whether your overdrafts will be paid is discretionary and we reserve the right not to pay. For example, we do not pay overdrafts if your account is not in good standing. We do not pay overdrafts resulting from ATM and debit card transactions unless you have affirmatively consented to this service.
